The cult fan Q "is back in black"!

Q, the object fan from Stadler Form – a limited edition work of art

Zug Switzerland, September 2016, A fan has also been an object since Stadler Form launched Q in 2009. In his trademark style, Carlo Borer, the well-known Swiss designer, has created a metallic work of art of cult status. After intensive development, the fan is now also available in limited edition black. For trendy "art lovers", there are even a few pieces available in sleek berry.

As of the current version, Q is equipped with a simple cleaning system allowing the fan blades to be cleaned in next to no time. Q is made of high quality stainless steel and the black and berry versions are varnished. Stadler Form's products are characterised by exceptional design coupled with the highest quality and innovative technology. More than seventeen national and international awards attest to this.

Stadler Form markets its products around the globe via selected department stores and specialist retailer: recommended retail price for Q € 209.- / USD 220.- / CHF 195.- | www.stadlerform.com

ABOUT STADLER FORM AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

Stadler Form Aktiengesellschaft was founded in Zug in September 1998. The company specializes in the development, manufacture and sale of household appliances with a focus on improving indoor air quality (air purifiers, humidifiers, fans, heaters, dehumidifiers, aroma diffusers). The product development emphasis is on timeless design in combination with high-end technology. The initiator and founder of the company is Martin Stadler, who attracted a lot of attention and achieved great success in 1998 with the first product, "FRED the humidifier". Stadler Form designs and develops the appliances in Switzerland in collaboration with Swiss Designers, such as Mathias Walker (Matti), Carlo Borer, Kurt Zimmerli, Fabian Zimmerli and Bernhard I Burkard. Stadler Form products have already been internationally recognized with several design awards. The company exports its products to more than 48 countries around the world and has become a leading supplier in the field of air treatment.
