TREND LETTER | Winter 2022

Fragrant dancing flame

Stadler Form presents three gift ideas for Christmas

Every year in the run-up to Christmas, the feverish search for the perfect gift begins. It should be highly individual and give a lot of pleasure. That's why Ben, Lucy and Zoe from Stadler Form – the design brand for air treatment products – make ideal gift ideas. Thanks to their innovative technology, they create an atmospheric ambience with flickering light effects.

Gift idea #1: The talented 3-in-1 Ben

Lean back, take a deep breath and feel good: the multifunctional Ben from Stadler Form creates a cosy atmosphere, humidifies the indoor air and emits a subtle fragrance. Even if you haven't got a fireplace, you can enjoy the feeling of an open fire – thanks to Ben. The Amber Light™ produces a realistic dancing flame without the need for a fireplace and without producing any soot. You can steplessly adjust the intensity from a gentle flame to a flickering play of fire. A little note for anyone who is design-conscious: Ben won the Red Dot Design Award 2022 and the German Innovation Award 2022.

Gift idea #2: The fragrant and illuminating Lucy

A romantic candlelight dinner? No problem with aroma diffuser Lucy from Stadler Form. Her simple design makes her perfect for placing on a beautifully laid table. Lucy bathes the room in soft light and fills it with a subtle fragrance in the form of a fine mist created by adding essential oils and dispersed by means of ultrasonic technology. As Lucy can be operated using a rechargeable battery, she can be moved around quite easily. Her deceptively realistic candlelight creates a cosy atmosphere and guarantees soothing relaxation.

Gift idea #3: The handy and glamorous Zoe

Zoe from Stadler Form turns any room into an oasis of well-being. The mist rises from the bronze-coloured bowl with its elegant metal look and the clever Amber Light™ creates an amber dancing flame. At the press of a button, energy-efficient ultrasonic technology will ensure that the extra-fine mist is optimally distributed around the room. A little note for anyone who is design-conscious: Zoe won the Red Dot Design Award 2021.
