The ideal gift for that special Christmas moment

Stadler Form's products add just the right touch to any festive occasion

Every year, in the run-up to the festive season, the same question arises: how can we bring joy to our loved ones? Whether it's a small gesture for a 'Secret Santa' at the office, a stylish treat for the Christmas drinks party, or a big present under the Christmas tree – we're looking for gifts with that certain something. The products with a flame effect from Stadler Form are ideal for this: the aroma diffusers from the Sophie range and Zoe mobile combine atmospheric lighting with soothing scents, whilst the electric fireplace Erik adds a touch of cosy warmth to the dancing flames. With natural essential oils and illuminated water mist, these products create a cosy atmosphere and provide just the right moments of relaxation during the festive season.

Sophie mini – The 'Secret Santa' surprise

For 'Secret Santa', you need a gift idea that will bring joy and is versatile. Sophie mini combines an aroma diffuser and a lantern in a compact design: her amber-coloured flickering light and subtle fragrance mist create a cosy atmosphere at home, both indoors and outdoors, not just at festive times but all year round. The bamboo handle gives her a natural, elegant look, whilst the rechargeable battery allows for up to seven hours of cordless use. Whether in the office, amongst friends or with family: Sophie mini is a small gift that creates a big wow effect when unwrapped.

Sophie little – The perfect companion for your Christmas drinks party

As a stylish gift for a festive drinks reception, Sophie little adds a touch of ambience the moment she is unwrapped and continues to bring joy long afterwards. From the welcome to the cosy finale, her amber-coloured light with a flame effect and the scent of essential oils create a relaxed atmosphere. Thanks to her rechargeable battery, Sophie little runs cordlessly for up to seven hours and can be used both indoors and in a sheltered outdoor area.

Sophie – The centrepiece of the family celebration

If you're welcoming your loved ones on Christmas Eve or want to give your hosts a lasting treat, Sophie is the perfect choice. As both an aroma diffuser and a lantern in one, she'll be part of the festivities right from the start. With a battery life of up to eleven hours and certification for outdoor use, she will effortlessly accompany you from a cup of mulled wine or punch in the fresh air back indoors for Christmas dinner. A gift of lasting value that can be used all year round, both indoors and outdoors.

Erik – The star under the Christmas tree

Erik brings the cosiness of an open fire to cold winter days. As a clever 3-in-1 appliance, he combines an electric fireplace, a fan heater and an aroma diffuser in one. A fine, illuminated water mist creates a mesmerising flame effect – without any soot, smoke or any risk of burns.. The flame effect glows in a choice of classic amber, red, blue or green and can be perfectly combined with cosy warmth and your favourite fragrance. A generous gift that brings the magic of an open fire into the living room at the touch of a button.

Zoe mobile – A lifesaver for last-minute invitations

If you're invited at short notice just before the festive season, Zoe mobile means you won't have to turn up empty-handed: without having to search for ages, she makes for an original gift. The compact aroma diffuser uses ultrasonic technology to disperse essential oils into the room as an extra-fine mist, whilst an amber-coloured light creates a gentle play of flames. With a battery life of up to six hours, she can be used cordlessly anywhere in the home. Whisper-quiet in operation, with a switchable light and an automatic shut-off function, Zoe mobile transforms even the bedroom into an undisturbed oasis of well-being.
